

RANGARAYA MEDICAL COLLEGE : KAKINADA

DISTRIBUTION BEDS (TO BE IMPLEMENTED TO MEET THE UG & PG MANDTORY NORMS AS PER M.C.I.)

S.No.	NAME OF THE DEPARTMENT	No. of Units Required	Beds as per MCI Norms	Beds Existing	Remarks and Reallocation of Beds
	I. MEDICAL & ALLIED SPECIALITIES:
1	General Medicine	7	210	240	NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE Out of 6 beds of Neuro Medicine in M IV Male ward, 3 beds shall be reallocated to General Medicine
2	Paediatrics	4	120	140	NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE Out of 84 excess beds of Obstetrics & Gynaecology, 21 beds in the Pre Gynaec ward alongwith Cots & Mattresses shall be reallocated to Paediatrics department, to makeup the deficiency alongwith the ancillary staff in pre gynaec Ward.
3	TB & Chest Diseases	1	30	80	NO. OF UNITS - ADEQUATE Presently 40 of the excess beds retained with TB & CD only. The remaining 10 beds on Female side shall be allotted to Dermatology Dept., to correct the deficiency there. *
4	D V L	2	30	30	NO. OF UNITS - ADEQUATE The 20 beds of Leprosy ward shall be allotted to Dermatology ward to meet the deficit of beds. *

S.No.	NAME OF THE DEPARTMENT	No. of Units Required	Beds as per MCI Norms	Beds Existing	Remarks and Reallocation of Beds
5	Venereology	1	30	30	NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE 12 Beds of isolation ward and 13 beds of Hydrophobic ward i.e., total of 25 beds shall be reallocated to Venereology to meet the deficit of beds in Venereology. *
6	Psychiatry	1	15	20	NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE Psychiatry ward is to be shifted from present Radium Ward to its own rennovated premises with 10 extra beds to make a total of 30 beds to constitute with a full unit as per MCI norms to start PG Courses.
7	Cardiology Wards	1	General	Male 19 Female 14	5 Beds on Male wing and 4 beds on Female wing to be reallocated to C.T.Surgery Unit.
	I.C.U.Wards		20	13	To be provided after new Super Speciality block (MCI Block) is completed.

* The arrangements suggested at S.No.3,4 and 5 shall continue till such time as a separate block for STD., AIDS and Dermatology Department is built as per proposals being sent to Government of Andhra Pradesh for sanction to fulfil the requirements of M.C.I. norms for running P.G.Courses.

NOTE: 1 After the completion of new Radium Ward with 20 beds and extra 10 beds to be added to make a unit with 30 beds for starting PG Course in Radio Therapy.

2 10 beds of present Radium Ward alongwith 12 beds in present Dermatology & Venereology ward shall be reallocated to E.N.T., Ward (Unit II) to meet the P.G.Norms.

S.No.	NAME OF THE DEPARTMENT	No. of Units Required	Beds as per MCI Norms	Beds Existing	Remarks and Reallocation of Beds
1	II. SURGERY & ALLIED SPECIALITIES: General Surgery	7	210	240	NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE Deficit of 30 beds are to be made good by reallocating of beds as follows: Out of 23 beds of Neuro Surgery, 9 beds of Male 6 + Female 3 , Out of 18 beds of C.T.Surgery, 15 beds of Male 10 + Female 5, Out of 15 beds of Urology 3 beds (3 Male) and out of 17 beds of Plastic Surgery, 3 beds (3 Male) shall be reallocated to General Surgery to meet the deficit of 30 beds. NOTE: 12 Beds for C.T.Surgery to be accommodated as follows: 5 Beds (Male) in Cardiology Ward 4 Beds (Female) in Cardiology Ward. 3 Beds (Male) in Post Operative Ward (Surgical).
2	Orthopaedics	4	120	130	NO.OF UNITS ADEQUATE Out of 36 beds of Female Orthopaedics, 3 beds shall be reallocated to Paediatric Surgery to make a total of 20 beds for Paediatric Surgery to meet MCI norms and also to start P.G. Courses in future.

S.No.	NAME OF THE DEPARTMENT	No. of Units Required	Beds as per MCI Norms	Beds Existing	Remarks and Reallocation of Beds
3	Ophthalmology	2	30 + 30 UG PG	66	NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE Excess 6 beds shall be reallocated to E.N.T. to meet the P.G. norms, in addition to, as detailed under 2 on page 2. 3rd Unit may be shown as Mobile Ophthalmic Unit (Non teaching). Extra unit (3rd) and 30 beds to be shown only when extra PG seats in Ophthalmology Dept are sanctioned.
4	E.N.T.	2	30 + 30 UG PG	32	NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE 10 + 12 beds of Radium, Dermatology & Venereology wards and 6 beds of Ophthalmology shall be allotted to E.N.T. to meet the deficit of 28 beds.
III. OBSTETRICS & GYNAECOLOGY:		4			NO.OF UNITS - ADEQUATE
a	Obstetrics		80	100	Out of excess of 84 beds, 21 beds mostly from the Pre Gynaec beds shall be reallocated to Paediatrics department to correct the Paediatrics deficiency. In view of the patients load, the rest of extra beds shall be retained in Obstetrics & Gynaecology only. Only pre-gynaec ward shall be allotted to 3rd Unit of Paediatrics to make good the deficiency pointed out by MCI.
b	Gynaecology		120	120
c	Post partum		8	30

S.No.	NAME OF THE DEPARTMENT	No. of Units Required	Beds as per MCI Norms	Beds Existing	Remarks and Reallocation of Beds
IV	I.D. & T.B. COMPOUND: A Leprosy Ward			Male 10 Female 10	To be shown as Dermatology beds under MCI Norms for Dermatology and Leprosy Department. Rest of 10 extra beds required are reallocated from extra beds of T.B.Unit.
	B I.D.Wards			30	Reallocated as follows: G.E.Ward 12 Beds Tetanus Ward 10 Beds Hydrophobia 04 Beds Isolation cases 04 Beds
I.C.U.WARDS:		Each I.C.U Ward shall consist of minimum 2 Steps to be taken to meet these norms with immediate effect. Acute Medical Care 20 beds, SICU 20 beds and Extra accommodation is being provided by further construction N.I.C.U., 20 Beds and P.I.C.U. 20 beds. which are under various stages of progress.
I.C.C.U. NORMS :		Shall consist of 12 beds		Steps also to be taken to fulfill as per the MCI Guidelines. in the new Super Speciality (MCI BLOCK).
R.I.C.U. NORMS:		Shall consist of 04 beds.

NOTE : THE MINIMUM REQUIREMENT OF 12 BEDS EACH OF SUPER SPECIALITY SHALL BE MET ALONGWITH NON TEACHING BEDS FROM THE REST OF THE SANCTIONED BEDS.

The allotments of non teaching beds remain the same as before. All the above arrangements are ordered after through inspection of the entire hospital inpatient facility and going through the various statutory obligations and MCI Regulations and holding discussions with all the Heads of the Departments and Superintendent, Govt General Hospital, Kakinada.